In the Market

Guinea Broilers Hamburg Grapes French Andive Turkeys and Ducks Roasting Chickens Milk Fed Broilers White Meated Fowl Fresh Mushrooms Fancy Table Apples Fancy Table Pears

Malaga Grapes
Tokay Grapes10c and 15c
Fine Celery 5c and 7c
Chickory and Lettuce
Romaine and Escarole
Hothouse Tomatoes
Fanoy Pines 250
Spinach, peck
Cauliflower 15c and 20c
Shoulder Steak 120
Shoulder Roast 120
Seventh Rib Roast 160
The state of the s

Everything in Fruit and Vegetables.

Somers Bros. oct21d

UP-TO-DATE SHOES in all leathers $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00

FERGUSON & CHARBONNEAU, Franklin Square sept22d

We will have a full report of the games to be played for the "World's Baseball Championship"

commencing on Monday, October 17th.

The scores will be received by innings.

Wauregan House Cafe The Parker-Davennort Co., Props.

-THE-

Franklin Package Store

Wines, Liquors and Imported DELICATESSEN.

Has the largest stock in Eastern Conn.

We give a discount of 20 per cent. with every dollar purchase, this month thonal church Sunday morning.

Our goods guaranteed by the Pure Food Law.

With every dollar purchase we away a Handsome Souvenir.

Geo. Greenberger, 47-53 Franklin St.

Building ARE YOU THINKING OF DOING

THIS ? If so you should consult with me and get prices for same. Excellent work at reasonable prices.

C. M. WILLIAMS,

General Contractor and Builder. 218 MAIN STREET.

DR. KIMBALL has removed his office to 21 Broadway, Wauregan Block Hours-2-4, 7-8 p. m. Sundays-8-4. Tel. 48. sepid

A Fine New Line of Fall and Winter Goods Received

Our work in every line of Tal guaranteed to give satisfaction JOHN KUK!d. Merchant Tullier. 208 Muin St., le canklin Sq.

FIFTH ANNUAL CONCERT

VOUNG MEN'S BA FACA CLASS
Audience flaces, Trighty Methodist Church.
Vocal Talent of High Forder.
Violinist of Race Excellence
Superior Impersonator
Expert Accompanists
Friday Evening, Cett. 28, 1910, at 8
Admission, 25 cen ps. oct26WF THERE is no a pertising medium. Eastern Councette be equal to The Stern for business Lecaults.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Wednesday, Oct. 26, 1910.

VARIOUS MATTERS

The cooler weather, it is said, is in reasing the demand, for oysters. The new personal tax must be col-ected as soon after November 1 as Hear Rabbi Wise in Y. M. C. A. course, Central Baptist, next Monday night.—adv.

Owners of woodland complain that juite as many forest fires are set by thestnutting parties as by hunters. The thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions will be held at Cromwell today (Wednes-

The state cattle commissioner reports the total number of glanders cases or farcy reported during the year, 185.

Mortgages recorded in Norwich last week amounted to $8,175, as against $2,256 during the corresponding week

Three petitions in bankruptcy were filed in Connecticut last week. The assets are given as $2,492 and liabili-

It is said that at many farmhouse milk is being drunk as a substitute for water, which is so scarce now that wells have gone dry.

What rain has fallen has been of great benefit to the state roads, where the surface had become rough, due to the action of sun and drying winds.

The assessors will be at their office in City hall on Monday and Friday evenings this week from 7 to 9 o'clock,

The next meeting of the general conference of the Congregational churches of Connecticut will be held in the Con-gregational church at Putnam Nov. 15

In its genealogical department the Norwalk Hour has the note: Wanted, parents' names of Leander Stafford with dates. Was he of Colchester or Salem, Conn.?

J. F. Saxton, who was room clark at the Griswold, is to be the new man-ager of the hotel, which will also mean the managership of the Belleview at In the city court Tuesday morning the continued cases of breach of the peace against two citizens were noiled upon payment of actual costs. One paid $4.31 and the other $2.31.

So many weeks of dust have had their effect in causing eye troubles, as the result of flying particles more or less poisonous and irritating, and culists have had extra business there-The executive committee of the State Police association is to meet in Middletown this (Wednesday) after-noon. They will be the greats of Chief of Police Inglis, a member of the com-

There was a fire drill at the West Thames street school Tuesday after-noon and the 140 pupils were out in less than a minute. The boys used the fire extinguishers to put the fire out which had been started in the gutter.

Application has been made through the New London custom house to change the name of steamer Yuma of the Norwich and New York Propeller company. The name for the Yuma will Reports of the banks of Connecticut show them in a very satisfactory condition. There are in the state a total of 200 banks, including 79 na-7 state and 87 savings banks, and 27 trust companies.

The family of Joseph Hines, captain of the barge Blue Mountain of New York, which is engaged in the transportation of coal to Allyns Point, arrived last week to spend the winter months at Ichabod cottage, Gales

Thursday, Gen. William A. Aiken of this city will make an address on the civil service law during the morning

The fourth biennial Connecticut Endeavor convention will be held in the Second Congregational church, Waterbury, Friday and Saturday and will close Sunday evening. There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions on the three days.

A Rocky Hill correspondent writes; Judge E. M. Warner of Putnam, who was a delegate at the International Prison convention, recently held in Washington, gave an interesting talk

Those interested in the woman's state college state that no site has been selected by those in charge, though several towns are urging their claims for recognition. Both New London and Norwich are anxious to secure the new college, but it is said that the site at New London has not been seen.

Francis J. Brennan, known to local railroad men during his four years' service for the New Haven road as station agent at South Worcester, has resigned to travel for a New York firm. He is succeeded by Frank F. Moulton, chief train despatcher for the road at Providence.

The October Crop Reporter shows the following: Farm value of import-ant Connecticut products, October 1; Corn, seventy-five cents a bushel; oats, Corn seventy-live cents a busnet; oats, fifty-three cents; potatoes, seventy-five cents; hay (loose), $18 per ton; rye, directy cents a bushel; butter, 35 cents a bound, eggs, 37 cents a dozen; chickens, 175 cents a pound.

Negotiations are under way for the establishment of a cloak industry in the village of Turnerville, which was sold several months ago to . J. who stein & Co., of Newark, N. J. who operated the mills there for a time as factory until a disa silk throwing factory, until a dis-astrous fire of last March, when the main mill was burned.

The October issue of the Connecticut Churchman mentions among par shes which have completed their apportionments or more, during the fis-cal year, Norwich, Christ, Norwich, Trinity, Poquetanuck, St. James, Put-nam, St. Philip's, Stafford Springs, Grace, Stonington, Calvary Williman-tic, St. Paul's, Windham, St. Paul's, Yantic, Grace. The Norwich parishes have exceeded their apportionment. have exceeded their apportionment.

Employed Boys' Class Social After their regular gymnasium ses on on Thesday evening the employ-boys' class at the Young Men's ed boys class at the Young Men's Christian association enjoyed a social evening under the guidance of Physical Director Lessing Bandlow Ice cream contributed to the pleasure of the hour and the members of the class discussed plans for an open evening for all the working boys of the city. It will combine both gymnasium and social features. social features.

The municipal electric railway of Moscow, Russia, made a net profit of $1,000,000 in 2009, against one of $200, 000 in 1903. The city has 1,424 factories, employing 327,163 hands.

PERSONAL

Benjamin Lahn of New York is visit

Miss Frederica Roos of Norwich is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles But-tery of Westport. George Griffin moved Monday from his summer place at Best View to his winter home in Cleveland street, New

Mrs. Charlotte B. Lamb returned Tuesday to her home in Mystic after spending a week with her cousin, Mrs. Elizabeth McCord.

The Worcester Post notes that President Alfred L. Aiken of the Worcester County Institution for Savings has returned from a four weeks' trip to Los' Angeles, Cal., where he at-tended the annual convention of the American Bankers' association.

POLITICAL CONFERENCE OF MUCH IMPORTANCE HERE

Gathering Will Be at the Wauregan -Reception to Candidate Goodwin in the Evening and Meeting of Goodwin-Lippitt Club.

A political conference will be held here today, which is of much im-portance in republican politics. There will be a conference of the candidate or governor and the other candidates for state office, with chairman of the state central committee members of the state central committee and chair-men of the local towns' committees, and republican registrars of voters of the towns of New London county, at the Wauregan house at one o'clock this afternoon, at which time a lunch will be provided and after which the conference will be held. The various candidates on the republican state ticket to be voted in this town will

CHARLES A. GOODWIN.

De present.

At the close of the conference the candidate for governor, Charles A. Goodwin, will be taken to Taftville and Greeneville, where he will meet the people and make a short address. Returning to the hotel he will be tendered a public reception to which all will be welcome, by the Goodwin-Lippitt club which will last until eight o'clock. The acceptances of practically The acceptances of practically all the candidates on the republic state ticket have been received by ciub and they are expected by the ciub and they are expected to be inattendance. Others who will be here will be Senator F. B. Brandgee, Congressman E. W. Higgins, ex-Mayor.
Costello Lippitt, Judge Ayling, and Representative H. W. Tibbits and Alherr I. Ballay. They will again to the bert J. Bailey. They will assist in the reception.

Mr. Goodwin will leave here by auto at eight o'clock and is slated for a reception and speech at New London at $.30. He will remain there over night as the guest of Senator Brande

After the reception, the Goodwinthe new ballot law will be explained by Registrar Tyler D. Guy, who has portation of coal to Allyns Point, arrived last week to spend the winter months at Ichabod cottage, Gales Ferry.

At the convention of the Connecticut State Federation of Women's clubs to be held at Danielson today and Thursday, Gen. William A. Alken of the Connecticut of the C

FAITH TRUMBULL CHAPTER HEARS MANY REPORTS

First Session of the Season, with Business. Music and Statements from Members. The first meeting for the winter of Faith Trumbull chapter, D. A. R. was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Norwich club. There were about 45 ladles present. The meeting was conducted by the regent, Mrs. William G. Henderson. The usual reports were given by secretary and treasurer and several other matters of business arts. several other matters of business act-ed upon. Mrs. Augustus Sullivan sang sweetly Rubinstein's Voices of the Woods and Sweetheart by Ryder Mrs. Frank Coxeter accompanying. A re-port of the recent meeting of the Ellsworth Memorial association, held at the Elisworth house in Windsor, was made by Mrs. Amos A. Browning, who explained the association and what it does, besides telling of the meeting. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Davis gave a falk on another department of G. A. R. work—that of the state patriotic eduwork—that of the state patriotic edu-cation committee. Included in this work are the Connection history clubs, the raising of standards in some of the day schools, the giving of scholar-ships, the reading clubs and the work for immigrants. In the last class she spoke at length of the new Italian reader recently published and which has already met with wide praise and ready acceptance. It is a complete eady acceptance, ready acceptance. It is a complete guide for any person landing on our shores from Italy and wishing to know how to live successfully in this cour-try. Its publication fills a widefe try its publication him a widefelt ness among Italian inchigrants. Mrs. Henderson announced the several com-mittees for the Japanese entertain-ment which the Daughters are planning to give next worth and Mrs. W. Tyler Browne called attention to the year book of the society. Mrs. Sullivan sang Phillips' Leave Me to Languish and was recalled for an encore number.

A social hour followed and refreshments were served by the social committee.

Floods Hove Relatives Here. Everyone who has seen the bill at Poli's this week have been particularly pleased by the work of the Four Floods in the novel acrobatic stunts. It will be interesting to know that they have relatives here and that thos is the first appearance of the quartette in Norwich. They have been globe frotters, basics in the state of the control of the place of the particular terms. wich. They have been globe trotters, having played in Great Britain, France and Germany, and are leaders on the vandeville stage. They have a fine summer home in Michigan and give up only a few weeks a year to the work on the stage.

Frank A. Smith Emists.
Recent enlistments at the United States navy recruiting station in the Traist company building. States have recruing saving that ford Trust company building. Hartford, includes Frank A. Smith, 19, of Norwich, who is assigned to cavalry at his own request. He had his par-

There are trade secrets in the Chi-ness vermillon industry centuries old, which no foreigner has ever been able

Commissioners Transfer

Petitions of H. & R. Blinderman and J. G. Bedard Granted-Licenses Granted in Stonington.

NORWICH MEN

the morning session.

dered printed.

Willimantic.

Britain.

NAMED ON COMMITTEES.

Plasterers Favors Home for Aged.

dered printed.

The committee named included the following: Reports, J. Kallas of Norwich, J. Cliff of Bridgeport, J. Felleter of Hartford, J. Bleckham of Ansonia; ways and means, L. Corr of Waterbury, L. Lenninger of Greenwich, H. F. Tee of Norwich, D. Horgan of Rockville, J. P. Barry of Danbury, O. Willard of Willimantic.

Election of Officers.

Louis Corr of Waterbury, James A. Felleter of Hartford and E. J. Meakins of Waterbury were candidates for the presidency. The election resulted the presidency. The election resulted as follows: President, Louis Corr, Waterbury; first vice president, James A. Felleter of Hartford; second vice president, John O'Keefe, New Haven; secretary. Philip G. McFermott, New Haven; treasurer, Walter Kingsbury, New Bertrain.

A home for aged bricklayers was projected at Tuesday's session of the convention. A committee was appointed to raise funds and execute the wishes of the delegates, who were enthusiastically in favor of the move-

William H. Shields Has Maintained

What Was Formerly the Parlor of the Merchants' Hotel Unchanged.

THIRTY-SIX YEARS.

LEAVING OFFICE AFTER

The state conference of the Brick-

The county commissioners met here cations at their session here Tuesday and transferred the license of the B. Ellinderman to No. 20 Eath following parties: street, and also the license of J. G. Bedard to 65 West Main street. These are two of the parties on Franklin square who were notified by the commissioners a year ago that they must remove their places of business.

It is expected the remaining licenses on Franklin square will be transferred to other localities before they expire, Nov. 7.

The commissioners is not before they expire, The commissioners are two of the parties of J. G. Bedard to 65 West Main street. These Most Marphy, Water street; Peter Danacy, Grand street.

Mystic—Charles Paitelo, Holmes street: Michael McGrath, Willow street; A. L. McLaughlin, Hoxle House.

Pawcautek—Bernard Halpin, West Broad street; Albion Tattersall, Mechanic street.

to other localities before they expire. Nov. 7. The commissioners have been busily engaged in hearing applications during the last two weeks, received from resi-dents of Stonington, which town has been in the dry column for the last five years. More than thirty applications were received from this town. The commissioners considered these appli-

QUARTERLY MEETING OF CITY UNION, KING'S DAUGHTERS. Rev. Neilson Poe Carey Speaks on State Convention of Bricklayers and Founder of Organization-Reports and Place for Next Meeting.

In the vestry of Christ Episcopal church Tuesday evening, with their chairman, Mrs. William H. Dawley, presiding, was held the regular meet-ing of the City Union of the King's ing of the City Union of the King's Daughters. A fair sized attendance was present and a profitable evening was enjoyed,

Rev. Neilson Poe Carey, pastor of Christ church, who had been invited to attend the meeting, had charge during the early part and led in devotional service. Following the singing of a hymn, in which all joined, and the reading of a passage of scripture, Rev. Mr. Carey gave a few interesting glimpses into the life and works of the famous founder of the order of amous founder of the order of The King's Daughters, Mrs. Margaret Bottome, by reading portions of her letters to her eldest son. His recital claimed the earnest attention of all and was thoroughly appreciated.

Mrs. Alfred Davis, secretary, called the roll, which was responded to by the members of the several circles giving in unison some passage of scrip-ture. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. H. F. Palmer, who could not be present Thesday evening, was read by the chairman. A contralto solo, given in fine voice by Mrs. William Haselden with Miss Elna M. Doty accompaning on the plane, was finely suns, and then a detailed report of the state convention of The King's Daughters, which took place at the Second Congregational church at New London on Oct. 11th and 12th, was made by Mrs. Oct. 11th and 12th, was made by Mrs.
W. E. Canfield. In this report Mrs.
Canfield, who was the local delegate to the convention, told of the present conditions and needs of the order, as reflected in the reports of the various committees, described carefully the proceedings of the two days, and in an interesting manner gave brief extracts from the several addresses listened to. The question as to the time and The question as to the time of piace for holding the next meting was discussed, and it was finally decided that it should take place in the parlors of the Broadway Congregational church on Friday evening, Jan. 13th, when they hope to have as the speaker of the evening Mrs. Brokenshige of Boston. Mrs. Haselden favored her hearers with another vocal selection, and at its conclusion a vote of thanks was nassed for all those who had as splendid success. ANNUAL MEETING OF

THE YOUNG W. C. T. U. Report from State Convention-

was passed for all those who had as-sisted in making the meeting such a Visit Almshouse Next Sunday. In their rooms in the Bill block of Tuesday evening the Y. W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting, at which the superintendent, Mrs. J. J. Fields, the superintendent, Mrs. J. J. Fields, presided. A complete and very interesting report of the recent state convention at Danbury was given by Mrs. A. E. Smith and was heard with much appreciation, which was expressed in a rising vote of thanks. Mrs. Smith was the Y's representative at the convention, and Mrs. Fields also attended as county L. T. L. superintendent.

This was the annual meeting of the but as the chairman of the nomnating committee was unable to be present the election was put over until iter. A unanimous vote to visit the lmshouse on next Sunday afternoon as passed, and the members will take the 3.30 car from the square. It was thought another visit might also be made near Christmas. Mrs. Fields, county L. T. L. superin-Mrs. Fields, county L. T. L. superintendent, was in Groton on Tuesday afternoon for the opening of the season for Company L, which meets at the schoolhouse at 3.30. Mrs. H. Addia Randall of Groton, county and local president was with Mrs. Fields for the opening meeting, which was attended by 71 children, all but 16 being new members, not having belonged to the Legion last year. The ages rangthe Legion last year. The ages ranged from 7 to 16 years. The following officers were elected: Lois Crouch, treasurer; Mildred Lamb, secretary; Ruth Burdick, planist; aisle moderators, Robert Burgess, Frank Furiong, Edward Manice, Lawrence O'Mare, Mamie Comi, Ethel Hewitt and Ed-ward O'Mare, All took the enlistment pledge and the superintendent gave them a help-ful talk on the articles of the pledge referring to temperance and purity.

COLONIAL CLUB HAS A LADIES' NIGHT Eleven Tables of Whist Played-Prize

Winners and Their Prizes.

With their customary success the Colonial club on Tuesday evening had a ladies' night, which eclipsed all others. There was a large number present, and eleven tables of whist were played. Among the ladies Mrs. Charles Pierce and Mrs. Laura Rutchins were tled for first, each having 41 for a score. On the cut Mrs. Pierce won and received a handsome hatpin. Mrs. Hutchins received second prize, a belt pin. Among the men William J. Koonz was highest, having 43, and his prize was a silver handled knife. Second prize, a necktie, went to Charles Parsons with a score of 38. Ice cream and cake were served following the whist. The committee in charge of the pleasant affair included Charles Whitaker Charles Lamb and John Slattery.

NEW DANCING CLASS. First Meeting at the Haile Club Under Professor Holland.

At the Haile club on Tuesday evening the beginners' dancing class under James J. Holland, instructor, had its first evening, opening with a good number of couples in attendance. The social event for the club this week is to be their shirtwaist dance at Miller's, for which the following. for which the following is the commit-ted in charge. Miss Jennie Kimball Miss McNelly, Misses Lines Rydholm Elsie Bogue, Bridget Dwyer, Ann Elsie Bogue, Misses Linea Rydholin. Elsie Bogue, Bridget Dwyer, Anna Schwartz, Haidee Blackstone, Grace Greenwood, A. McKenna, Rose Malady, Dora Rode and Annie Houldcroft. On Tuesday evening the usual meet-ing of the study and travel class, which is taught by Mrs. William C. Lannar. was postponed, as she was not well enough to take the class for that evening.

Miss Anna Ely has returned to her home on Washington street, after a visit with relatives in Newport, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepard B. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ashbey are in Atlantic City for several days'

McLaughlin, Hoxle House.
Pawcatuck—Bernard Halpin, West
Broad street; Albion Tattersall, Mechank street; John Maloney, 65 West
Broad Michael Neville, 14 Mechanic;
Howard C. Reynolds, corner West
Broad and Mechanic.

Several hearings are still pending, assigned to be held in New London in the near future. It is probable that several more licenses will be granted when these hearings are closed.

Meeting of Fifth Company.

week the company begins its regular drilles.

layers, Masons and Plasterers union closed at New Britain Tuesday. The conference has been a fruiful one, business of importance only to the members being transacted and a fine Politics Is Politics. time having been enjoyed.

President Reihl presided as toast-master and was the principal speaker at the banquet Tuesday night. Addresses were made by all the officers, in the course of which the state of the organization was discussed. Suggestions for the welfare of the organiza-tion were made. In addition to the officers' addrsses remarks were made by ex-President James Felleter of Hartford and ex-President Timothy Collins of New Britain. Vocal selec-tions were rendered by John McLarney and F. B. Mordecal of New Britain. The committees named reported at the morning session committee on resolutions ap-The committee on resolutions approved a proposed application blank of a different character from what has been used in the past. Plans were made for increasing the membership and usefulness of the body. The various reports which were outlined were approved by the committee and ordered printed. they will return to their first love. No matter what may be said, politics is politics, and the party that forgets this will be left."—Portland Express.

THE PEOPLE

The Thames Loan and Trust Co.,

Norwich, Conn. Every department of banking, including Savings Department.

For the past thirty-six years William H. Shields has had his office in the Austin block, at the southwest cor-ner of the building, where was for-merly located the parior of the olmerly located the parior of the old Merchants' hotel, the pride of Norwich in its day. Mr. Shiaids, being fond of the history of the building and the parior, where men of national reputation have been entertained, did not disturb the interior, and the fireplace and mantel of the old parlor have been retained intact. It was from the balcony in front of his office window that President Jackson made, an address President Jackson made an address about 1835. Daniel Webster was also about 1835. Daniel Webster was also entertained there two days after the Sinking of the steamer Atlantic off Fisher's Island.

Mr. Shields is leaving this office after many years spent there and is locating in his own building in Broad-

UNERAL.

George Breed. The remains of George Bred of Hart-ford, formerly of this city, arrived here on the noon train via the Central Ver-ment road Tuesday. The body was taken in charge by Henry Allen & Son and burial was in Yantic cemetery. A number of relatives accompanied the remains. Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

GEO. A. DAVIS

New Line of . . .

Leather Goods

LADIES' SHOPPING BAGS. POCKETBOOKS and PURSES. JEWEL BOXES, SEWING CASES, PLAYING CARDS in Leather Cases. Portfolios, Traveling Clocks, Drink ing Cups and Pocket Flasks. Large line of Gentlemen's Pocketbooks. Letter Books and Bill Rolls.

Everything new and useful in leather We also have a splendid new line of Imported China-Chocolate Sets, After Dinner Coffee Sets, Tea Cups and Saucers, Plates and Tea Pots.

Japanese Novelties and Puzzles. Crepe Paper, all colors, 5c per roll Decorated Crepe Paper, 10c per fold.

GEO. A. DAVIS 25-29 Broadway

Incidents in Society

Miss Florence Northrop has returned to Beech drive after several weeks' visit with relatives in New York city and Stamford, Conn.

Mrs. John Sevin has been enter-Mrs. John Sevin has been enter-taining eight ladies at her cottage at Eastern Point for the past two days. Monday evening two tables of bridge were played, each lady receiving a candlestick as a souvenir. The party expects to return today, making the trip by automobile, thus ending a most delightful outing.

Mrs. John F. Sevin is entertaining a house party of eight ladies at her cottage at Eastern Point. On Tues-day two tables of bridge were en-joyed. At the conclusion of play each player received as a dainty favor a colonial candlestick.

On Tuesday evening there was a meeting of the Fifth company at the armory, but it was not a busy evening, save during the indeor baseball game, when much interest was aroused. Next

A Portland democrat, in talking to-day about the United States senatorship, said: "I am a friend to Mr. Gardner and also to Mr. Johnson. I have taken no part in the contest going on and do not intend to do so. As a matter of politics, however, I must say that I think the democrats should elect Mr. Gardner. It seems to me that the cities of Maine are partly super to be democratic for pretty sure to be democratic for awhile, and that it will be policy for the democrats to cater to the vote of the farmers. They have been turned down once within a few months and now come and ask for recognition again. I believe that the farmers have not decided to be democrats perma-nently, and are only taking the party on probation. They are going to judge us by our deeds, and, if we show no regard for them and their interest, of this community our re-lation is that of friendly helpfulness. Ask any of our customers.

TOWARD

at Rallion's

District Visitation

PROGRAMME

For Wednesday Eveniug, October 26th, 1910

AT TAFTVILLE. M .- Address by the Republican Nominee for Governor Near Po nemah Boarding House

AT GREENEVILLE. P. M .- Address by Mr. Goodwin from his automobile near Greene ville Fire Station on North Main

AT WAUREGAN HOUSE. M .- Public Reception to Hon. Charles A. Goodwin and Repub-

Goodwin-Lippitt Club in the New Parlors of the Hotel, Exerybody welcome. Orchestra in

M .- Open Meeting of the Goodwin-Lippitt Club at the Wauregan. Admission of New Members. Explanation of the New Ballot by Republican Registrar Tyler D. Guy.

attendance.

Will Open in City Hall Tuesday Night, Nov. 1st.

Our Store will be open tonight.

We give out Hair Pins Tonight. Come and get one.

Infants'

of Quality A Complete Stock

Mothers find our Infants' Section a most satisfactory place. It always contains a complete showing of all the little garments needed to clothe the little babe and the children of tender years, and quality is observed as the watchword here as in the rest of the store. Children's Coats, bearekins, basket weaves, in plain and fancy woolens. prices $2.25 and up.

Children's Winter Bonnets, silks, earskins and fur, all the new models -50c and up. Children's Hats in the latest novelies, white, light blue, pink, red, navy also a fine assortment of Boys' Hats and Caps-98c and up. Children's Sweaters, white, gray and red, some with high necks, others without, plain and fancy weaves, rang-

Complete line of Children's Dresses.

blue, black and all the favorite colors,

Skirts, Bibs, Bootees and Leggings at moderate prices. How About ing in price from $1.25 to $2.98.

Blankets If you have not discovered that your fall bed coverings are too light, you will shortly, and wise people will have heavier bed covering ready before the sharp weather begins. We have a splendid stock of Blankets, made up by the best manufacturers in this country, and careful comparisons that we can save you money. 11-4 Extra Heavy and Large size Blanket white, gray or tan, pink or blue border-only $2.48 pair.

11-4 White or Gray Blankets, beautiful borders, nearly six pounds in weight, the best blankets that can be purchased, for $5.00 pair. MAISH COMFORTERS-the com forter that never fatigues you, but keeps you warm in the coldest weather WOOL COMFORTERS - Warmth vithout weight, luxuriously warm, yet light and fluffy. New designs in silko-line, sateen, silk and satin coverings-ranging in price from $3.50 to $12.50. Last Week of Exhibition and Sale of Oriental Rugs On Second Floor you will find a cellection of Rugs that Judged just for their beauty would be one of the most interesting ever gathered. These Rugs are all selected pieces and prices most reasonable.

The Reid & Hughes Co. We Recover Furniture and De Carpet

Laying.

BRACELETS

Stone Set, Solid Gold, Gold Filled extensive assortment of Bracelets range from plain pat-terns to beautifully engraved and chassed ones and rapresent the new fall styles just pro-duced by the leading manu-facturers.

The Plaut-Cadden Co., Jewelers and Silversmith,

Established 1872. PLAUT - CADDEN BUILDING

DENTIST DR. E. J. JONES Suite 46, Shannon Building Take elevator Shetucket street en-

WHEN you want to put your busi-ness before the public, there is no me-dium better than through the advertis-ing columns of The Sulletin

THERE is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bullietin for business results.

Tuition and Supplies Free.